

The Northeastern University Marine Science Center presents

COASTAL OCEAN SCIENCE ACADEMY 2019

For over a decade, the Coastal Ocean Science Academy (COSA) has provided a hands-on, research-based STEM education experience that connects youth to local coastal habitats and the factors that shape them. This day program is based at the NUMSC's campus in Nahant, and includes off-site field trips to locations around Boston and the North Shore.

- Middle School Program –
