

Northeastern University
Marine Science Center

Boston Harbor Ecosystem Network Meeting

Wednesday, May 15, 2019

1:00 – 4:00 pm

Northeastern University

360 Huntington Avenue, Boston, MA

Curry Student Center, Room 440

Draft Agenda

- 1:00 pm Welcome and Introductions
- 1:05 pm Presentation: “Love that Dirty(ish) Water: Today's Charles River”
Presented by Lisa Kumpf, Aquatic Scientist, Charles River Watershed Association
- 1:25 pm Presentation: “Eutrophication, cyanobacteria, and floating wetlands: what to measure and what to do?”
Presented by McNamara Rome, Ph.D. candidate, Environmental Engineering, Northeastern University, on behalf of Charles River Conservancy
- 1:45 pm Presentation: “The Neponset River: Challenges, Actions, and Initiatives”
Presented by Andres Ripley, Environmental Science Fellow, Neponset River Watershed Association
- 2:05 pm Presentation: Title TBA
Presented by Andrew Hrycyna, Watershed Scientist, Mystic River Watershed Association
- 2:25 pm Break
- 2:40 pm Panel Discussion: Boston Harbor Looking Forward
Moderated by David Wu, Program Manager, Environmental Quality Department, Operations Division, Massachusetts Water Resources Authority
- 3:10 pm Steering Committee Updates, Participant Announcements, etc.
- 3:45 pm Brief Presentation: Boston Harbor Habitat Atlas
Presented by Torrance Hanley, Metro Boston Regional Coordinator, MassBays National Estuary Program
→ beta version of the Atlas is available here
→ form to submit feedback is available here
- 4:00 pm Meeting End