

BRITTANY SEGILL

brittsegill@gmail.com | segill.b@northeastern.edu

FIELDS OF INTERESTS

- Conservation and wildlife rehabilitation
- Sustainable policies and programs

EDUCATION

Master of Science, Environmental Science and Policy (expected May 2023)

Northeastern University

Bachelor of Science, Environmental Science (May 2021)

Minor: Climate Change and Sustainability

University of Massachusetts – Lowell

WORK EXPERIENCE

Environmental Specialist 1, July 2021 - current

Veolia (contracting site – Moderna, Norwood MA)

- Familiarization with U.S. DOT, EPA, and VES-TS regulations and policies
- Manifesting, packaging, spill clean-up response and remedial activities, and coordinating transportation
- Demonstrated customer service and upheld a professional image when communicating with clients

Conservation and Stormwater Intern, September 2020 - January 2021

Town of Tyngsborough

- Exhibited attention to detail when reviewing town meeting and engineering plans
- Strong ability to work independently when conducting stormwater site inspections
- Ability to step out of comfort zone when working near busy roadways and wooded environments
- Practiced writing skills through the creation of educational brochures, enforcement letters, and drafting of bylaws

Recycling IQ Cart Checker, August - November 2020

Town of Tyngsborough

- Outreach and communication with residents on proper recycling materials and methods

Climate Change Policy Research Assistant, June - August 2019

Adam Teva V'din (Tel Aviv, IL)

- Researched global policies of climate change adaptation and mitigation

RELEVANT PROJECTS

Net Zero Sustainability Capstone (Fall 2019)

- Exhibited a positive attitude and strong work ethic when working on a 3-person team
- Practiced interpersonal skills when administering surveys on eating habits to students on campus
- Utilized attention to detail, creativity, and efficiency to design an initiative for Meatless Mondays to take place at campus dining locations

CERTIFICATIONS

- OSHA 40-hour HAZWOPER
- Hazardous Waste Management and RCRA Regulation Training
- DOT Hazardous Materials Regulation Training

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- UMass Lowell Cum Laude Honors
- Sigma Gamma Epsilon - Earth Science Honors Society
- Rist Institute for Sustainability and Energy (RISE) Student Innovation Award
- 2 years on the executive board of the Alpha Sigma Tau Sorority